

Sad Christmas seen for many kin of OFWs

By Edan C. Sison Jr.

THEY SAY, "Christmas is the season of giving." But for many Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs), Christmas is a season of longing and sadness. They are far from home, missing their families and friends, and wondering when they will be able to see them again.

The Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs) are the backbone of the Philippine economy. They are the ones who work hard to support their families back home. But for many of them, Christmas is a sad time. They are far from home, missing their families and friends, and wondering when they will be able to see them again.

Water board takes to cyberspace to avert crisis

By Margot C. Biale

THE METROPOLITAN WATER BOARD (MWB) has launched an online portal to provide water service users with a platform to voice their concerns and report problems.

The board's online platform, which is accessible at www.mwb.gov.ph, is the first of its kind in the Philippines. It allows users to report water supply problems, such as leaks, low pressure, and other issues, and to track the progress of the board's response.

The board's online platform is a free service for all water service users. It is designed to be user-friendly and to provide a quick and easy way to report problems. The board's response time is typically within 24 hours.

The board's online platform is a key part of its efforts to improve its service to water service users. It is also a way for the board to stay in touch with its customers and to address their concerns.

MILF won't take part in negotiations

Gen. Antonio Moreno, commander of the Philippine Army's 10th Infantry Division, said the MILF will not take part in negotiations with the government.

Moreno said the MILF is a terrorist organization and should be treated as such. He said the government is not interested in negotiating with a terrorist group.

The MILF, which is based in Mindanao, has been fighting the government since 1992. It claims to be a legitimate political group, but the government and the international community view it as a terrorist organization.

The MILF's refusal to negotiate has led to a stalemate in the peace process. The government has offered several peace deals, but the MILF has rejected them all.

5 hours of sleep
 Missing 100 hours of sleep is like not taking a shower for 100 days. It's a gross, disgusting, and very unpleasant thing to do. It's a good idea to get a good night's sleep.
